Defaulting in Export Obligation

2692. SHRI N.S.V. CHITTHAN : Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether many leading Export Houses and Trading Houses are defaulting in export obligation;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the steps taken to check such defaults on exports and to simplify the export documentation process for speedy clearance of export commodity?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI BOLLA BULLI RAMAIAH) : (a) and (b). No, Sir. As per available information, of the total number of 3036 Export Houses/Trading Houses, only 32 are found to be defaulting in completing within time, the Export obligation imposed against various licences such as duty exemption licences, EPCG licences, Industrial Licences/Foreign Collaboration approvals etc. Out of these 32 defaulters, none have defaulted against the EPCG Scheme. Only 7 have defaulted against Industrial Licences/Foreign Collaboration approvals and 25 have defaulted against duty exemption licences.

(c) Regular monitoring of individual Schemes is done to ensure prompt fulfilment of export obligation. In certain difficult cases extension of time is also allowed to enable the licence holders to fulfil their export obligation. Action is also taken against defaulters under Foreign Trade, Development & Regulation Act, 1992. Simplification of export documentation is a continuous process and is done in consultation with various Apex Trade Bodies.

(a) whether any investigation into the operation of the stock invest scheme has since been carried out;

(b) if so, the outcome thereof and the action taken thereon;

(c) whether the irregularities in the operation of the stock-investment scheme is still continuing;

(d) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(e) whether there is any proposal to hold the management of the public and private sector banks responsible for any lapse rather than the employees; and

(f) if not, the justification thereof?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM) : (a) to (d). Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that scrutiny of the operation of the stockinvest (SI) schemes by it and the Economic Intelligence Bureau have revealed that the scheme has facilitated corporate bodies, brokers, institutions, etc. to make high value applications for primary issues through SIs and get allotment under the proportionate allotment system. Operational irregularities, such as, issue of SIs without adequate deposit cover, issue of pre-dated SIs, issue of SIs in bulk for third parties etc. in violation of RBI's guidelines of issue of SIs, were also observed. It was, therefore, decided that the facility of SI should be permitted only to individuals and mutual funds and that too against the lien on term deposits, credit, balances available in savings bank/current accounts of the investors. However, as serious irregularities still persisted in the operation of SI Scheme, it has been decided that a ceiling of Rs. 10 lakhs per individual per capital issue should be prescribed for issues of SIs by banks.

(e) Show-cause notice have been issued by RBI to some banks asking them to explain why a penalty of Rs. 5 lakhs and prohibition of issue of stock invests by the banks in future should not be imposed.

(f) Does not arise.
